

AUTOISTS REQUEST BETTER TREATMENT

Owners of Cars Want More Consideration at Hands of the Police.

That bicycle policemen be instructed to devote their entire time and attention to automobilists, but to attend to their general police duties as well, was the request made by W. S. Duval, a representative of the Automobile Club at a hearing before the Commissioners today.

The grievances of the owners of motor vehicles were aired at length by a delegation consisting of Mr. Duval, R. B. Caverly, and H. C. Hunter. Protest was made against the imposition of a wheel tax in addition to a personal tax, and it was suggested that the horse-drawn vehicles be compelled to carry lights, as are the automobiles.

Want Copies of Law.

It was requested also that copies of the traffic regulations be placed in the hands of drivers and owners of both horses and automobiles, and that the police be instructed to enforce the regulations in regard to both classes.

"That the emission of reasonable amount of smoke be not noticed, and where unreasonable amounts are discharged the driver warned to cure the defect."

"That the police have their attention especially called to broken glass, nails, boards with nails, horse shoes in the streets that are calculated to injure automobile tires as well as the hoofs of horses, and that they be instructed to arrest every person found guilty of such an offense."

"That the police be instructed that it is no violation of law for an automobile to drop a reasonable quantity of oil, and that no arrest should follow."

"I want it understood," said Mr. Duval, "that we are not finding fault with any one, but simply calling attention to a few facts which, while in the nature of grievances, yet have grown so gradually upon us that they are hardly recognized as such until we come to analyze the situation."

"As time passes, however, the powers will all become drivers of automobiles and then, and not till then, can we look for safe, sane, and absolutely fair treatment."

POLICE DRAG BASIN FOR MISSING MAN

George W. Feuchter Believed to Have Been Drowned From His Boat.

Police of the Harbor precinct today are dragging the Tidal Basin for the body of George W. Feuchter, a clerk in the railway mail division of the Post-office Department, who, it is believed, was drowned while swimming from a rowboat last night.

Feuchter hired a rowboat at the basin about 7 o'clock. He put on a bathing suit and left his clothing at the boat-house. About two hours later a man walking along the speedway discovered a boat bumping against the seawall and notified the proprietor of the boat-house. The boat was the one which Feuchter had hired.

Feuchter came to this city from Baltimore about three months ago. He was twenty-four years old and roomed at 101 Second street northeast.

VIRGINIA SUNDAY SCHOOLS ARE BUSY

CHARLOTTESVILLE, Va., July 2.—The State Sunday School Association of Virginia is holding a successful meeting here, and plans are being laid for extensive work during the coming year. A general secretary of the association will be continued for the next year.

The general superintendents are to be sent out into the field during a part of the year. H. Clay Harman, of the city, has been elected president for the coming year.

ENGLISH SEE A PLOT BACK OF HINDU CRIME

Killing of Col. Wyllie by East Indian Student Believed to Be But Part of Wholesale Murder Plan. Bystander Loses Life.

LONDON, July 2.—English officials today are certain that the killing of Lieut. Col. Sir William Hutt Carson Wyllie, one of the most prominent Indian officials, and Dr. Lal, a Parsee physician, by Nadar Lal Dhinagras, a Hindu student, is the result of a plot to murder all officials connected with the Indian service.

Their belief seems to be borne out by the discovery today, despite the precautions of the police, that Dhinagras succeeded in slightly injuring Sir Lesley Probyn, another prominent Indian ex-official in the scuffle that followed the killing of Wyllie. It is understood that the Indian student succeeded in drawing his dagger before he was overpowered. Friends of Sir Lesley hurriedly removed him, taking the utmost precautions to conceal the fact that he was wounded.

The police in the course of their investigation, have uncovered facts which lead them to believe that Dhinagras, who is a medical student from Madras, came to London from Paris, at the instigation of a revolutionary society in the French capital.

The preliminary trial of Dhinagras has been set down for July 10.

That the killing of Lieutenant Colonel Wyllie is but the beginning of an extensive plot is the belief and attempts against other officials are feared. Lord Morley, the secretary of state for Indian affairs, is being especially guarded, as he is deemed to be in the gravest danger.

Despite the refusal of Dhinagras to answer questions, have uncovered facts which lead them to believe that Dhinagras, who is a medical student from Madras, came to London from Paris, at the instigation of a revolutionary society in the French capital.

AUCTION SALE MAKES LARGEST THIS WEEK

Two-Story Business Property on Seventh Street Changes Hands.

The sale at auction of the two-story business property at 835 Seventh street constitutes the biggest deal made during the week in property of this class. The building which occupies a lot 134 by 100 feet, was bought by Bernard B. Bailey for $17,500. The total area is 13,400 feet. The sale was made by Thomas J. Owen & Son, auctioneers, for Thomas C. Bradley and Enos Ray, trustees. It will be improved and held as investment.

Sold for a Home.

One of the "Homes of One Hundred Ideas," a three-story brick dwelling, located at Nipal, served general agent at Rajputana, and governor general's agent in Central India.

Dr. Leleaca, who was slain by Wyllie's assassin, was a practicing physician at Shanghai.

The police are making every effort to elicit from Dhinagras the real extent of the plot, which they suspect is under way toward the wholesale assassination of Indian officials.

While he steadily refused to divulge anything, Scotland Yard is hard at work on other features of the case, and sensational developments are expected.

Pays $5,500 for House.

Mrs. Dorothy S. Knipe has bought of James R. Ellerson, through the Willage, Gibbs & Daniel real estate firm, one of the new colonial brick houses just completed on the north side of Church street, between Seventeenth and Eighteenth streets northwest, near St. Thomas Episcopal Church. It occupies a lot 13 by 100 feet, and was sold for a price understood to have been $5,500. Mrs. Knipe will occupy the premises.

MAN TRIES TO KILL ABANDONED WIFE

Philadelphian Held in $800 Bond for Shooting at Deserted Spouse.

PHILADELPHIA, July 2.—Magistrate Ladener today held Charles Wagner, thirty-two years old, of Newark, N. J., in $800 bail for his appearance in court, charged with the attempted murder of his wife, whom he had deserted, the police say, and went to live in Newark.

Last evening Mrs. Wagner was sitting on the front steps of her home when Wagner approached and, it is charged, drew a revolver, firing three shots at his wife, none of which took effect.

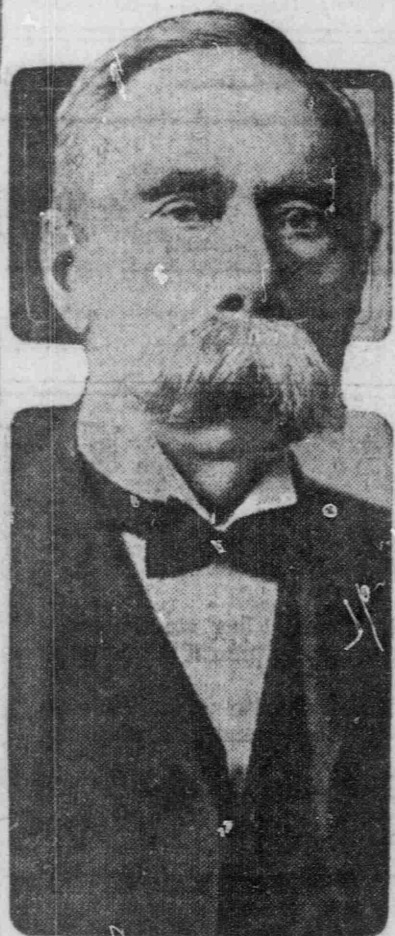

Wagner admitted that he intended to kill his wife and then commit suicide.

RAGGED DOCK "RAT" AIDS MILLIONAIRE

Detroit Man Gives 2 Cents to Millionaire Who Is an Invalid.

DETROIT, July 2.—A recipient of charity at the hands of a ragged dock rat was the unique experience of Jerome B. Rice, a millionaire seed man of Rochester, N. Y., here today.

Mr. Rice, who is an invalid, travels in a wheel chair with an attendant. He was sitting on a wharf waiting for his boat with several newspapers across his lap when a typical roustabout approached.

"Here, Sport," said the longshoreman, handing the millionaire a couple of copper coins. "I don't want no papers, but you can put these in your kiel."

Mr. Rice thanked his benefactor, and seemed to derive a great deal of amusement from the experience.

SELECTION OF BANK HEAD A HARD TASK

Successor to Jesse B. Wilson May Be Chosen Next Thursday.

Who will be the next president of the Lincoln National Bank?

This question excites keen interest in financial circles, and especially among the directors of the bank named. They are as much at sea today, as they were yesterday.

Though former President Jesse B. Wilson contemplated resigning for months and the directors knew it, when that official retired from office Thursday there was no unanimity of opinion as to his successor.

When the meeting assembled the directors expected to elect a president, but the three candidates—Messrs. Davis, Earnshaw, and Robert Callahan—all had their advocates, and so evenly divided was the vote that an adjournment was taken.

It is reported that the directors tendered the presidency to a prominent F street business man, who refused for business reasons.

The candidates are bringing their influence to bear as best they can, and an election will probably result at the meeting next Thursday.

In the meantime former President Wilson has retired from commercial life, and is resting at his home in this city.

CENSUS BILL SIGNED BY PRESIDENT TAFT

New Director Is Present When Signature Is Affixed to the Measure.

The President this morning signed the bill providing for the taking of the next census.

The new director of the Census Bureau, E. Dana Durand, was present when Mr. Taft affixed his signature to the measure. The two had a short conference regarding the work, and in a tentative manner discussed the policy to be pursued in the appointment of enumerators and supervisors under the bill.

Immediately after the conference, Mr. Durand went to the Department of Commerce and Labor, where he had brief talks with the officials there interested in the new law. From the department he went to the Capitol, where he had a conference with Senator Lodge of Massachusetts.

LEGATIONS IN PERSIA UNSAFE, SAY REBELS

Declare No Protection May Be Offered to Foreigners in Teheran.

ST. PETERSBURG, July 2.—Dispatches from Teheran say that the foreign legations have been notified by the rebels who are approaching from Kavin, that the latter can no longer guarantee the safety of foreigners in Persia.

Sardarad, the rebel leader, in a message to the legations, declares that Russian intervention is responsible for the danger of the foreign residents.

The situation in Teheran is grave. The Persian Cossacks now in the city number only about 700, the brigade of 1,200 having been depleted by detachments for service in other parts of the country, and it is quite plain that this force would be unable to make any serious resistance to the liberal army which is within striking distance of the city.

General Sharkey, with a Russian force, is hurrying from Tabriz, but his arrival, it is thought, will be too late to forestall the attack of the rebels.

A strong Russian force is massed on the Caspian shores in transports, but they are deterred from landing by the fear that their advance will precipitate a terrible massacre of all the foreign inhabitants of Teheran before they are able to reach the city.

LIQUOR LOCKERS LEGAL.

MONTGOMERY, Ala., July 2.—In a decision of the Alabama supreme court, the "locker system" of storing liquors has been upheld. The court holds that liquor, when kept in lockers by individuals and not for sale, is personal property and cannot be molested by municipal ordinance.

JOB WINANS ANGIUS BURIED TOMORROW

Funeral services for Job Winans Angius, for many years a resident of Washington, will be held from his residence at 11 Ninth street northeast, tomorrow afternoon to Glenwood Cemetery.

Mr. Angius was born in Elizabeth, N. J., eighty-eight years ago. He superintended the erection of the Smithsonian Institution building and later had charge of the erection of the Metropolitan Hotel and Trinity Church. He was a friend of President Lincoln, and had charge of the Executive Mansion during that administration.

He was a member of St. John Lodge, No. 11, F. A. A. M., and was present with his lodge when the ceremony of placing the capstone on the Washington Monument took place.

Two daughters, Mrs. J. A. Goodler and Mrs. J. B. Moulden, survive him.

AN ITCHING PALM

No Cure for It. Other Forms of Itching Preferable.

There is no cure for an itching palm—the money kind. Even posam, the new skin discovery, cannot help it. But when it comes to eczema, the most annoying of itching skin troubles, posam will stop the itching at once and cure the worst cases in a few days. So with hives, rash, scabies, split toes, piles, and scaly scalp, all of which are different forms of eczema, accompanied by severe itching and caused by imperfect digestion and careless diet.

Posam comes in two-dollar jars, but fifty cents' worth will answer in curing any of the diseases mentioned. It can be had of any druggist. Ogram's, O'Donnell's, the People's Drug Store, and Affleck's make a specialty of it.

That results are immediately will be amply demonstrated overnight by the use of the experimental sample which the Emergency Laboratories, 2 West Twenty-fifth street, New York city, will send free by mail, in plain wrapper, to any one who will write for it.
